

Associate membership application

Application information

Use this form if you are applying to become an associate member of the New Zealand Law Society (Law Society). Please complete the application form and return it to the Law Society.

You must provide the original application and original supporting documentation. Applications and related documentation such as references will only be accepted if dated within 3 months of the date of the application form.

If you have any queries about the form or payment, please contact Registry on 0800 22 30 30 or email associatemembership@lawsociety.org.nz

Eligibility

Please refer to the Law Society Rules for Associate Membership 2014, available on our website lawsociety.org.nz/about-us/what-is-the-law-society/associate-membership/.

You may be eligible for appointment as an associate member if you have a significant association with the legal profession. For example, if you are:

- A retired lawyer
- An experienced legal executive, legal office manager or the like employed in any field of law
- An enrolled barrister and solicitor of the High Court of New Zealand practising overseas
- A New Zealand lawyer practising overseas not holding a New Zealand practising certificate
- An overseas lawyer with significant association with the New Zealand profession

- A present or former member of the judiciary in New Zealand or elsewhere
- A lecturer in law
- Anybody else claiming a significant association with the legal profession

Lawyers who are currently suspended or have been struck off the role are ineligible.

Benefits

Benefits of New Zealand Law Society associate membership include:

- Receive member rates for NZLS CLE courses – webinars, seminars and workshops on a wide range of topics are presented online and at various venues throughout the country
- Receive the Law Society's weekly email newsletter
- Eligible for appointment to Law Society's special committees
- Option to join Law Society's Property and/or Family Law Sections
- Option to subscribe to the Law Society's Library services

Payment

Once your application has been approved we will invoice you and email instructions on how to download your invoice and make payment.
